Public Relations Intern

Apply at: <http://www.internships.com/public-relations/public-relations-intern-i3237481>

Application Deadline: September 7, 2017

Position: 2 Part-time, Paid

Timeframe: 09/04/17 — 01/04/18

Description

Our dynamic marketing/advertising agency is looking for an intern to assist the Public Relations Team with managing of clients. Intern will also assist in account work and event execution. This Intern will work closely with both account executives and senior management.

The ideal candidate is a university student or recent graduate who is studying for or received a degree in Marketing/Advertising/PR looking to learn “the business” with strong interest in digital media. We're looking for someone who is an exceptional writer, is highly proficient in multiple social media platforms, is enthusiastic and fun and is ready to hit the ground running. The intern will work in our Philadelphia office. Our work place is relaxed with a fun team to work with and learn from.

Responsibilities

Assist Public Relations Team with managing of clients, media outreach, professional writing

Requirements

The ideal candidate will be reliable, goal oriented, organized, personable individual who has the ability to learn quickly and achieve goals without a lot of direction. Importantly, the candidate who commits to this opportunity must be able to work 3 days a week regardless of vacation, work or school schedule. Interns are eligible for FOUR days off during an internship term. This includes sick and/or vacation days. Internship starting and end days are flexible.
