PR & Social Media Intern (Spring 2018)

Internship

Philadelphia Youth Network (PYN) seeks a dynamic and enthusiastic individual for an internship in its Communications and Marketing department, with a focus on public relations and social media. If you are a creative, self-motivated marketing or communications major with excellent writing and interpersonal skills, this is a great opportunity to gain professional experience for college credit.

Responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

- Managing social media profiles
- Discovering and creating proactive publicity efforts and media pitches
- Drafting web content and internal communication content
- Collecting and managing media clippings and broadcast coverage
- Performing competitive and industry research
- Proofreading materials for quality and consistency

Successful candidates must:

- Demonstrate interest in social media, and media and communication strategies
- Understand dominant social networks and best practices for sharing and increasing engagement over them and have an awareness of current social media trends
- Transition easily from working as a part of a team to working independently without micromanagement.
- Have a desire to both contribute to and learn from the experience

Requirements

- Must be able to earn school credit for the internship
- Working knowledge of social media platforms (including Twitter, Instagram, Facebook and LinkedIn)
- Basic knowledge of Microsoft Word, Excel and Power Point
- Excellent writing, computer and interpersonal skills
