Claims Specialist Training Program

Are you looking to help people and make a difference in the world? Have you considered a position in the fast-paced, rewarding world of insurance? Yes, insurance!

Insurance brings peace of mind to almost everything we do in our lives—from family trips to your first car to weddings and college graduations. As a valued member of our claims team, you'll help our customers get back on their feet and restore their lives when catastrophe strikes.

The details

When you're part of the Claims Specialist Training Program, you'll acquire various investigative techniques and work with experts to determine what caused an accident and who is at fault.

You'll independently manage an inventory of claims, which may include conducting investigations, reviewing medical records, and evaluating damages to determine the severity of each case. You'll resolve cases by working with individuals or attorneys to settle on the value of each case.

If comprehensive training, one-on-one mentoring, and a strong pay-for-performance compensation structure at a global Fortune 100 company piques your interest, what are you waiting for? Make a difference in the world with Liberty Mutual.
